

House Resolution No. 76

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have admirably assisted state governmental Departments in their quest to meet the public's mandate for efficient and effective services; and

Whereas, Mary Ann Glover of Mokane, Missouri, will be honored at a festive gathering of her colleagues and supervisors on January 30, 2002, at Jefferson City's ever-popular Madison's Café in light of her forthcoming retirement as a Clerk IV with the Department of Social Services, Division of Legal Services; and

Whereas, Mary Ann Glover began her successful career with the Department in July of 1986 as an Account Clerk I; and

Whereas, during her sixteen years of state service, Mary Ann Glover also held the position of Account Clerk II and completed an Accounting I class at Lincoln University and a Budget & Appropriations class through the Office of Administration, Division of Personnel; and

Whereas, Mary Ann Glover focused her energy and attention on processing/payment procedures, recording/tracking/reconciling of accounts, projecting division expenditures, tracking and monitoring all budgetary changes to the core request on a division-wide basis, keeping division staff apprised of changes relating to travel regulations, providing helpful information regarding payroll and personnel, tracking fixed assets, and maintaining accurate resource files; and

Whereas, a member of Mokane United Methodist Church, Mary Ann Glover is proud to be known as a loving wife, beloved mother of Gregory Edward Glover and Douglas Lynn Glover, and wonderful grandmother of Jackson Edward Glover, Harrison Park Glover, Grant Michael Glover, and Hudson Gregory Glover:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar career and impressive life of Mary Ann Glover and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement, including traveling, reading, relaxing, and attending grandson's sports activities; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution to acknowledge the well-deserved retirement of Mary Ann Glover from the Missouri Department of Social Services.
